

3 WAYS TO REGISTER

- > Send in the registration form to:
Sandra Malone
Day One
100 Medway, Providence, RI 02906
- > Fax to 401-454-5565
- > Register online @ www.dayoneri.org.professionaltraining.htm

REGISTER EARLY—SPACE LIMITED

Cost of each workshop $30.00. (CEUs included)
(Registration and payment one week prior to workshop)
Late registration $40.00

Sexual Violence Prevention Education

All workshops are held in the training facility at Day One. For more information call 421-4100 ext. 160 or 161

REGISTRATION FORM

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

E-Mail _____

Agency Name and Address _____

Occupation _____

Check CEUs needed: NASW Education

Please indicate any accommodations you require to participate in our workshops.

- Friday, March 27, 9a.m.-12p.m.Child Sexual Abuse
- Friday, April 3, 9a.m.-12p.m. Intersections: Multicultural Issues and Sexual Assault
- Friday April 17, 9a.m.-12p.m. Sexual Harassment
- Friday, May 8, 9a.m.-12p.m. Panel: Issues Concerning Teen Disclosures
- Friday, May 22, 9a.m.-12p.m. Relational Aggression: Bullying Below the Radar
- Wednesday, June 3. 4p.m.-6p.m. Bystander Intervention

All workshops are $30.00. (Registration and payment 1 week prior to workshop.) Late registration $40.00

- Send me updates about future workshops. (Or, register for updates online at: www.dayoneri.org)

Total Amount enclosed$ _____

*Professional Workshops
March—June 2009*

*The Sexual Assault & Trauma
Resource Center*

The mission of Day One is to reduce the trauma and prevalence of sexual abuse and violence.

Child Sexual Abuse

This workshop provides participants with an overview of the dynamics of child sexual abuse. Additionally, data compiled from a study with sex offenders will be presented to help clarify facts regarding perpetrators and the grooming techniques utilized that impact victimization. Normal vs. problematic sexual behavior, signs and symptoms, disclosures, laws and legal responsibilities, prevention techniques, and how to respond to sexual abuse will be addressed. Great refresher for professionals!

Friday, March 27, 9a.m.-12p.m

Presenter: Sandra Malone

Intersections: Multicultural Issues and Sexual Assault

This workshop provides an exceptional overview of discrimination, prejudice, stereotypes, oppression, privilege, and how the issues intersect with sexual violence. Through lecture, interactive discussions and activities, participants will explore language and issues to consider when working with individuals victimized by sexual violence with regard to their different experiences and backgrounds.

(2) Cross Cultural CEUs

Friday, April 3, 9a.m.-12p.m.

Presenter: Hilary Jones

Relational Aggression: Bullying Below the Radar

This workshop will examine the unique type of aggression that involves inflicting harm through manipulation of a relationship. Topics will include: Victims and offenders, gender issues, popularity and effects of aggression. "Sexting", the internet, and abuse through other new technology will be explored. Additionally, responding, school as context for aggression, and prevention strategies will be addressed. Excellent resource for elementary and middle school teachers.

Friday, May 22, 9a.m.- 12p.m.

Presenter: Hilary Jones

Continuing Education Credit Hours are available for all programs.

Street Harassment, Sexual Harassment, and the Continuum of Sexual Violence

This workshop provides an interesting and comprehensive overview of the history, dynamics, and forms of sexual harassment in order to better understand the nature of this phenomenon. The differences between sexual harassment and discrimination, boundaries in work and social environments and become aware of the progression of sexual violence will be examined. Street harassment, the objectification of women, social norms, media reinforcement, and policy development will also be explored to enable participants to create healthy environments and respond to incidents of harassment. Friday, April 17, 9a.m-12p.m.
Presenter: Hilary Jones

Bystander Intervention: A Strategy to Prevent Sexual Violence

This workshop will present information about the concept of primary prevention, preventing violence before it starts, and explore a multi-level approach to bystander intervention as an effective strategy. An overview of the bystander phenomenon and the influence of social norms will be examined in regard to their influence and impact on bystanders' reaction to abusive behavior. The program will provide participants with skills to sharpen their ability to recognize abuse, offer practical strategies. and supply activities that can be used with adolescents to help them develop intervention skills. Wed., June 3, 4p.m.- 6p.m.

Presenter: Sandra Malone

Panel Discussion and Case Study: Issues Concerning Teen Disclosures

The unique issues concerning abuse disclosures from teens including when to report, to whom to report, and ethical dilemmas to consider will be explored in this workshop. A panel from RI agencies will offer their expertise, provide information and clarify reporting concerns. Agencies represented will include DCYF, the Attorney General's Office, Law Enforcement, and Day One Clinical staff. A case study will be presented in the second half of the workshop to provide an opportunity to utilize the information presented by the panel and to explore issues including: responding, reporting, ethical responsibilities, and confidentiality regarding these specific disclosures. (3) CEUs in Professional Ethics.

Friday, May 8, 9a.m.- 12p.m.

Program Facilitators: Sandra Malone and Debbie Chick LICSW

Workshops are designed to generate and accommodate questions and engage participants in activities and discussions.

Education Specialists

Sandra Malone, M.A. (Education and Counseling), Coordinator of Prevention Education, has been with Day One for over fifteen years, has extensive experience in program development and training, and has presented hundreds of workshops to elementary, middle, and high school students, as well as to professionals and other adults in the community.

Hilary Jones, Ph.D., Research and Education Specialist for Day One, has been with the agency for four years, has presented over 100 workshops, and is an adjunct professor at the University of Rhode Island. Dr. Jones's specialization is in Behavioral Science Psychology with a focus on gender and multiculturalism.